

Travelling Chassidim Stop Off in Woodside Park

Rabbi Pinchas Hackenbroch, Senior Rabbi at Woodside Park Shul welcomed The Travelling Chassidim this Shabbat to join the community. This group of Chassidic families from New York, Stamford Hill, and Manchester travel to different communities, bringing with them classic Chassidic warmth and liveliness.

The combination of contemporary Jewish songs, traditional Yiddish classics and heartwarming Chassidic storytelling was captivating for all age groups who enjoyed Friday Night with Dinner and Tisch, "Chassidic" lively shabbat davening, Communal Seudah, Rabbi Hackenbroch in conversation with the Travelling Chassidim, ma'ariv finishing with a Musical havdala and "kumsitz". It was a busy weekend for the 300 members of the community who joined the visitors for the event, it was a highly successful and spiritually uplifting experience for the community.

Date Uploaded: Tuesday 9th December 2014

Source URL: https://www.theus.org.uk/article/travelling-chassidim-stop-woodside-park?utm\_source=Email%20Campaign&utm\_medium=email&utm\_campaign=14648-343575-Behalotcha%205776-Preview