Levoyas (lit. accompanying [the deceased]) - The Funeral

These guidelines for funerals have changed to be in line with government guidelines published on 22nd September 2020.

In order to avoid the potential spread of the virus, attendance at levoyas will be limited to a maximum of 30 attendees, including the mourners (Aveilim) plus the officiating Rabbi.

In order to comply with NHS Test and Trace regulations, in advance of the funeral, the names and telephone numbers of all attendees must be sent to tandt@usburial.org.uk, the title of the email being (Date of funeral) (Name of deceased). All emails will be deleted 21 days after the funeral.

No one may attend if they have any (even slight) symptoms of Coronavirus.

Mourners who are asymptomatic but self-isolating, having been told to do so by NHS Test and Trace, can attend the levoya of their family member. However, they must advise the Burial office in advance of their intention to attend.

Non-mourners who are self-isolating must not attend.

All attendees should travel to the cemetery alone or with someone from their household.

Individuals might consider livestreaming funerals in order to allow others to be included. Please click here for the funeral service.

All funerals will be held outdoors and people will be asked to stand 2m (at least 6 feet) apart from one another. It is recommended that all attendees wear masks whilst at the cemetery and should wash their hands according to best practice immediately before and after the levoya. Normal water fountains are not operational therefore attendees may wish to bring their own water for washing on leaving the cemetery. No transport will be provided. Only mourners will be able to approach the grave and asked to put in earth. All other attendees must remain on nearby paths, staying appropriately socially distanced.

A one way system is in operation at cemeteries. Please follow instructions between the car parks and prayer halls, maintaining social distancing at all times. Please do not arrive at the prayer halls more than 10 minutes in advance of the funeral.

Stonesettings (Hakamat Matzevot)

Stonesetting ceremonies are now taking place. Attendance at stonesettings will currently be limited to a maximum of 15 attendees, plus the officiating Rabbi. Please refer to the section on funerals for detailed restrictions on attendees.

In order to comply with NHS Test and Trace regulations, in advance of the stonesetting, the names and telephone numbers of all attendees must be sent to landt@usburial.org.uk, the title of the email being (Date of stonesetting) (Name of deceased). All emails will be deleted 21 days after the stonesetting.

Individuals might consider livestreaming stonesettings in order to allow others to be included. Please click here for the stone setting service.

All stonesetting ceremonies will take place at the graveside and attendees will be escorted there at the scheduled start time. No transport will be provided. Only mourners can approach the grave. All other attendees must remain on nearby paths, staying appropriately socially distanced.

It is recommended that all attendees wear masks whilst at the cemetery and should wash their hands according to best practice immediately before and after the stonesetting. Normal water fountains are not operational, therefore attendees may wish to bring their own water for washing on leaving the cemetery.

A one way system is in operation at cemeteries, please follow instructions between the car parks and prayer halls maintaining social distancing at all times. Please do not arrive at the prayer halls more than 10 minutes in advance of the stonesetting.
